New Video Starring Captain “Pick-A-Card” Beams Tarot Into The 21st Century!

Can the Tarot, the so-called "wicked pack of cards" usually associated with back alley psychics, really be used as a tool for empowerment? The answer is a resounding yes, says Tarot pioneer and business strategist James Wanless, Ph.D, who puts the question to rest in a new video series.

Often cast darkly in TV and movies, Tarot has a reputation for dire predictions, not personal insight. But Dr. Wanless firmly rejects that notion. "The idea of a Tarot card reader proclaiming the future for a client who sits passively back to accept his or her fate is outdated," he says. "It's time to give the power back to the people."

Says Wanless, "We need to bring Tarot out of the musty medieval closet and into the light of a new holistic world view."

Wanless gives seekers the tools to do just that in a brand new DVD, "Tarot Into The Light," the first episode in a new video series from Tarot Media Company, 21st Century Tarot.

By combining Tarot with his “mantra for manifestation” (“see it, feel it, believe it, do it”), Wanless demonstrates how anyone can create the life they desire.

"It's about moving from fortune telling to fortune creation," he says.

Using Tarot for practical application is nothing new for Wanless, whose 28-year career has taken him into the boardrooms of companies worldwide as a Tarot coach and creativity consultant. His bestselling Voyager Tarot deck broke new ground in the 80's, with its evocative collages replacing the medieval scenes on the classic decks.

"There hasn't been much discussion about where and how Tarot fits in to this era," says Tarot Media Company Executive Director Anastasia Haysler, who joins Wanless in conversation on the DVD. "When used for personal insight, healing and manifestation, Tarot can help people in the 21st Century take control of their lives."

Affectionately known as "Captain Pick-A-Card" for his striking resemblance to Patrick Stewart of Star Trek fame, Wanless is a favorite speaker at Tarot events around the globe. But unlike his counterpart, Wanless rarely gets caught on film. So when was the last time he was in a professional video?

Wanless replies with a smile. "When I had hair."
