

Suggested Interview Questions For James Wanless, Ph.D., Tarot, Business, and Creativity Coach, and Anastasia Haysler, Tarot Teacher and Expert Reader

1. When most people think of Tarot, they think of fortune telling and shady back rooms. Is that what Tarot is really all about?
2. Tarot is very old, and some might argue it's not relevant to this day and age. How can the cards help someone in today's world?
3. Isn't the Tarot full of negative and scary cards?
4. Does Tarot work, and if so, how does it work?
5. Does a person need to go to someone else to get a reading, or is it okay to read for yourself?
6. If Tarot doesn't tell us what's going to happen in the future, what DOES it tell us?
7. Can anyone read Tarot, or do you have to be an expert?
8. So you do a reading for yourself and you get all of this information. What then?
9. How can someone use Tarot to create anything they want in life?
10. Is there any place for divination in today's world, and can you really see your future in the cards?
11. Does the Death card really mean "death?"
12. How can I (and my audience) get more information on Tarot in the 21st century?
